Paper 1 (Writing)

Part 1: Situational Writing (15 marks)

Pupils will need to write a letter/email/report based on a given situational context.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Furry Friends' Animal Shelter is looking for volunteers to help take care of abandoned animals.

Tasks include:

- 1) Feeding: twice a day
- 2) Taking them out for walks: daily
- 3) Bathing: twice a week
- 4) Cleaning of cages: once in two days

Volunteer period:

December school holidays, from 1 Dec to 14 Dec, 8 am to 7 pm

You can volunteer on any day. Gloves will be provided. Dress casually in shorts and slippers as you may get wet.

Benefits:

- 1) Get to play with the animals at certain timeslots
- 2) Breakfast and lunch provided on volunteer days

How to register:

Log in to www.furryfriends.com.au or go directly to Furry Friends Animal Shelter at 15 Care Avenue

For more information, you can call the hotline at 62261133.

Children 12 years and below must obtain parental consent.

*Our animals are our friends too.
Come play a part in caring for them!*

Task

Write an email to your friend, John, telling him about your interest to volunteer and asking him if he is keen to join you.

Part 1: Situational Writing

Markers look at:

(i) Task Fulfilment (6 marks)

- Content
- *Pupil's awareness of Purpose, Audience and Context (PAC)

(ii) Language and Organisation
(9 marks)

Tips for Situational Writing

- ✓ Analyse & determine
  - PURPOSE for writing
  - WHO writing to
  - WHO writing as
  - TONE of writing to use
- ✓ Aim to score full marks (6 mks) for Content by including all the key info
- ✓ Language – direct & specific

Paper 1 (Writing)

Part 2: Continuous Writing (40 mks)

- Only one question, i.e. no choice
- Stimuli (pictures and pointers) to help pupils view the topic from different perspectives
- Continuous prose (narrative/non-narrative)
- Composition must be based on:
  - ✓ the topic
  - ✓ at least 1 out of the 3 given visuals

Write a composition of at least 150 words about being kind.

The pictures are provided to help you think about this topic. Your composition should be based on one or more of these pictures.

Consider the following points when you plan your composition:

- Who was/were kind?
- How did the person(s) show kindness?

You may use the points in any order and include other relevant points as well.

Paper 4 (Oral Communication)

Stimulus Based Conversation

- A merger of Picture Discussion and Conversation
- Stimulus is a springboard for conversation
- Total of 20 marks
- Increased emphasis on reasoning

Paper 4:

Stimulus Based Conversation

(a) Look at the picture. Would you be interested to buy the milk? Why/ Why not? Why do you think a road safety message is printed on the milk carton?

(b) Schools often conduct road safety briefings as part of the assembly talks. Tell us about some of the road safety tips you remember and why they are important.

(c) What can we do to be healthy? Do you have a healthy diet? Why or why not? What can you do to lead a healthier lifestyle?

How You Can Help Your Child

- ✓ Identify your child's strengths and weaknesses in fluency, enunciation and pitch (practice makes perfect)
- ✓ Use online dictionaries to check correct pronunciation

How You Can Help Your Child

- Encourage your child to express their opinions and justify with reasons
- Use real-life, authentic scenarios
- Get your child to make connections to themes/topics once they see a picture
- Practice with school's resources

Paper 2 – Comprehension OE

- Revised format as of 2015 PSLE
- Ranges from 1 to 4 marks per question
- Variety of different question types

Sample Questions for Comprehension Open-Ended (OE)
